What's the current state of this? Are they added? I Can find some files with a name that looks like those you cite in https://github.com/qgis/QGIS-Documents/tree/master/source/docs/training_manual/processing: first_alg, second_alg, modeler_...

Yes, but they have errors.

Then shouldn't the report be about the errors inside these chapters (informing btw those who can fix them) rather than asking for adding them to the doc (which is already the case)?

In which case, I think this report should be closed and then fill appropriate and clearer tickets in doc repo. Thoughts?

Hi Paolo

I'm not sure to understand this issue report.

imho we should close it and move documentation issues in documentation repo (where there are likely people to pick them). Note that there are enough issues in doc repo to conclude that processing should be revised (not only alg description) so we should not need to reopen this one there.

What do you think?
