| Description | | |
| The Spatialindex include path is missing from Cmakelists.txt in a few places. If Spatialindex is not in one of the default include paths or any other include path used in compilation (ie it's installed in an isolated location), compilation fails. It's missing (and needed) in cmake lists in: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- app- gui- plugins/georeferencer- python | | |

Oh, now more that need spatialindex:

- plugins/coordinate_capture
- plugins/evis
- plugins/roadgraph
- plugins/grass
