Replying to sowelu:

[[GdalTools]] plugin crashes QGIS when it is installed, and also prevents QGIS from starting. I am using the trunk version of both QGIS and GDAL on Kubuntu 9.10. If starting QGIS from the console the only message is 'Bus Error'.

You're using the experimental version of the [[GdalTools]]-plugin, isn't it?

Experimental plugins may have some problems and QGIS doesn't recommend installing these unless for testing.

If your purpose is not testing, you should disable experimental ones from the Python Plugin Installer.

By the way, I opened a New Ticket on the [[GdalTools]] plugin trac and I'm closing this ticket.
