Description

I created a shortcut for QGIS in the top panel but the icons appears very pixelated. I suspect it is because there is no 64x64 version or 48x48. I am sure you have the logo in svg format so maybe a svg icon rather than a png or at least rendered large version of the icon.

Purely cosmetic though which is why I have made the priority low.

Ubuntu 11.04
QGIS 1.7.0

- Target version changed from Version 2.0.0 to Future Release - Nice to have

#4 - 2012-11-06 04:34 PM - Matteo Gismondi

- File qgis-icon64x64.png added

I made a 64x64 icon, I don't know if it helps but I hope so. If I knew what to do else I would...

- File qgis-icon128x128.png added

I made also a 128x128 icon which looks much better on the Unity menu.

- Resolution set to duplicate

- Status changed from Open to Closed

Duplicated in #6688, where there is probably a better solution
