Description
When I save changes of editing to a shapefile after deleting some features, the deleted feature records have not been really deleted from the shapefile. They are just marked as deleted. With 1.8, they are really deleted. Related to commit:810c11b.

run REPACK after deleting features (fixes #8317)

Revision cf7e016b - 2014-06-13 10:54 PM - Jürgen Fischer

ogr: don't create spatial index for shapes after deletes. That was supposed to also run a repack and doesn't work without (fixes #10483, refs #8317, refs #8822)

Revision 7d7cdcd3 - 2015-05-28 12:34 PM - Matthias Kuhn

Repack shapefiles when saving after deleting features

- QgsVectorDataProvider::dataChanged() will be emitted
- QgsVectorLayer::dataChanged() will be emitted
- Clears QgsVectorLayerCache
- Reloads the attribute table
- Clears the selection

Looking forward to people complaining about their lost selection...

- Priority changed from Severe/Regression to Normal

you should create a spatialindex once in a while - that will also repack it.

#2 - 2013-07-18 12:09 AM - Minoru Akagi

Users who don't know it will be confused when they move the data to another GIS software. What about doing REPACK in the destructor of QgsOgrProvider, only if any features have been deleted?

#3 - 2013-07-18 01:19 AM - Jürgen Fischer

- Status changed from Open to Closed

Fixed in changeset commit:"6149d34a5b3d776c582bda5cd3c61ccb15c85f2d".
