

QGIS Application - Bug report #9142

"format_number" function error in label expression

2013-11-29 06:45 AM - Marcin Sologuba

Status:	Closed
Priority:	Normal
Assignee:
Category:	Labelling
Affected QGIS version:	2.0.1	Regression?: No
Operating System:	Windows	Easy fix?: No
Pull Request or Patch supplied:	No	Resolution: not reproducible
Crashes QGIS or corrupts data:	No	Copied to github as #: 17777
Description
Function "format_number" in expression: format_number(($area / 10000), 2) " " "gat" generates bad labels. I see that in label preview (in Expression window) area is generated first as "0,00", but after simple change of expression is real value ex: "2,12". Finally in drawing there are only labels with zeroes (ex: 0,00 Db) or empty labels (in actual QGIS dev.)

hi, can you maybe share some dataset for which this is happening?

can you maybe also try on another computer or OS?

Here it looks like current nightly is working fine (see screenshot) can someone confirm if this (still) is the case, as I could not confirm this?

otherwise this could be closed I think

It still is problematic to me. It runs fine in the field calculator, also when I save it, but when I hit the toggle editing mode all the numbers switch to zeros (except for small numbers below 1,000). Can't figure out why is this.

Working on the Mac platform, version 2.4.0

#6 - 2014-09-10 12:03 AM - Richard Duivenvoorde

can you please provide some test data, and the steps we have to do to see this problem?
