Description

My Print Composer Window comes up with the menu items but I can't do or add anything to the window. I am using the 0.9.1 version and OSX 10.4.11

Not really a bug: the window appars empty, but you can select a page and add elements to it.

- Resolution set to invalid

- Status changed from Open to Closed

Closing this (see above comment). Please reopen if it is definitely a bug and occurs in version 0.10.
